Francesco Guicciardini

"There is nothing nicer than to sit and natter with friends or to lose oneself in a good book"

Home from Home

Dovecote Manor has been specially designed to provide maximum comfort, convenience and stimulation for the people who live there. We have a variety of attractive lounges, dining and activity rooms, two smoking rooms, and a lovely enclosed garden for sitting and enjoying time with friends and family.

People are encouraged to plan their own daily activities, as they would in their own homes, and dine in their chosen locations. To receive visitors, we have a number of quiet rooms as well as our scenic grounds, where family and friends can be entertained whenever they visit. Light refreshments are always on offer for these occasions.

All of our spacious bedrooms have en-suite wet rooms and are beautifully decorated, ready for people to add their own personal touches. Life can be confusing at the best of times, yet even more so when it involves moving away from home where special memories have been formed. For this reason, we encourage everyone to personalise and decorate their bedrooms with small items of furniture and treasured objects, to provide comfort and familiarity in their new surroundings.

To assist individuals living with Dementia, we have included a number of 'pockets of opportunity' around the home - small details designed to aid memory, provide sensory stimulation and promote conversation and interaction amongst people.

Dovecote Manor offers individuals a wonderful home where everyone soon feels part of the family. We endeavour to create friendly, warm surroundings and, to further promote the feeling of being surrounded by family and friends, we choose not to wear uniforms on the Dementia group. We find this adds to the relaxed atmosphere.

Dovecote Manor is conveniently located within walking distance of Bletchley mainline train station and local shops, just 5 miles from Milton Keynes.

"The most important thing is to enjoy your life - to be happy - it's all that matters."

A Life Fulfilled

From our experience, the ability of older people to maintain the skills to do things for themselves offers significant advantages, particularly for those with Dementia. The benefits from improved health, self-esteem and increased confidence are obvious and ultimately enable people to continue life as they know it.

We encourage individuals to join in the everyday activities of life, such as making a cup of tea, laying the dinner table or helping with flower arrangements. Everyone goes at their own pace, in their own way, with our support and companionship. To add a bit of spice to life, we arrange outings to places of interest and optional activities which are designed to engage the abilities and inclinations of people; some of the most popular activities include our movie experience, board games, quizzes and listening to their favourite music. Individuals decide for themselves just how much they wish to participate – some prefer the more sociable activities whilst others prefer to read a good book in a quiet spot, or relax in the garden. The choice is entirely theirs.

The sense of community at Dovecote Manor is palpable and we welcome visitors at any time, so please feel free to pop in and sample our hospitality, view our home and chat to our team.

A Culinary Delight

"Mealtimes can be quite a sociable occasion. Our resident Chef prepares tasty and nutritious home-cooked food daily, which never fails to whet peoples' appetites"

"Personal choice and independence is important to people; they can therefore dine wherever they choose"

Mealtimes at Dovecote Manor are a pleasurable affair. Our talented Chef creates a variety of delectable, nutritious dishes using fresh, seasonal and locally-sourced produce on a daily basis. Menus are planned and displayed in advance, complete with appetising pictures, so that people can look forward to a feast of culinary delights each week.

Each day, people can enjoy morning coffee with biscuits and afternoon tea with delicious homemade cakes. We also ensure that a variety of refreshments are available throughout the day, to which individuals can help themselves. Our team is more than happy to accommodate any special dietary requirements.

We all like a change of scenery; therefore, people are invited to dine wherever they choose. This could be in one of our attractive dining rooms; 'al fresco' in the picturesque setting of our garden; or indeed, in the quiet privacy of their own rooms. Once again, the emphasis is on personal choice. On special occasions, we encourage individuals to keep in touch with family and friends and are happy to arrange catering for small gatherings, to celebrate their chosen events.

*"Alone we can do so little;
together we can do so much"*

People Who Care

It can be daunting to entrust the care of loved ones to someone new. Our Care Staff are considerate, kind, compassionate and gentle; they treat everyone with the utmost dignity and respect, and their caring natures and friendly personalities are just as important as the right qualifications and experience.

Our Care Staff get to know each person on a personal level and genuinely enjoy hearing about their life journeys, experiences and memories. Each person is a unique individual; consequently, their care plans are bespoke, sensitively tailored and regularly reviewed to ensure that their lives are as comfortable, fulfilled and enjoyable as possible. We also recognise that friends and relatives are the experts when it comes to their loved ones and we welcome their continued, active involvement in their lives and care.

The happiness and welfare of the people who live here and their families are of paramount importance; we do all that we can to provide a relaxing and harmonious environment in which individuals can enjoy life to the maximum and families are reassured that their loved ones are in good hands.
